

THE BAILLIEU SUPPLEMENTARY RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS

Background

In 1954, the University received approximately £25,000 under the provisions of the Repatriation Fund (Baillieu Gift) Act, 1937, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining in perpetuity within the University, a scholarship or scholarships.

The supplementary scholarship is open to a full-time higher degree by research candidate in medicine, law, commerce, economics or architecture, who is currently in receipt of a major scholarship.

Rules

(February 1994; Revised July 2008; Revised February 2014; Revised October 2022)

1. The scholarship shall be known as 'The Baillieu Supplementary Research Scholarship'.
2. The Scholarship is intended to supplement a major scholarship at the RTPS rate held by the recipient and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions of the major scholarship.

Value

3. One scholarship of $10,000 per annum shall be awarded annually, or such other sum as the Graduate Scholarships Committee ("the Committee") may from time to time determine, subject to the available income from the Endowment Fund.

Duration

4. The duration of the Scholarship is up to a maximum of three and a half years. No extensions will be allowed.

Eligibility

5. To be eligible for the Scholarships, a candidate must be:
 - 5.1. an Australian citizen, permanent resident of Australia, New Zealand citizen or the holder of a permanent Humanitarian Visa; and
 - 5.2. commencing a full-time Higher Degree by Research program, at the University of Adelaide in the areas of medicine, law, commerce, economics or architecture; and
 - 5.3. a recipient of a major scholarship at the University of Adelaide.

Award and Selection of Candidates

6. The Scholarship is awarded as part of the Major Round of scholarship applications. When open, applications must be submitted using the Online Application Form.
7. The Scholarship shall be awarded to the highest ranking eligible candidate in the Major Round, in one of the above disciplines listed in point 5.2.
8. Where an eligible applicant is the lineal descendant of an Australian soldier or sailor who died or was blinded or was totally and permanently incapacitated as a result of his service in World War I, preference shall be given to that candidate. In determining whether an applicant shall be given preference under this clause, the Committee shall be guided by the provisions of the Repatriation Fund (Baillieu Gift) Act 1937.
9. All awards shall be made by the Committee.
10. No award shall be made if it is deemed by the Committee that there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
11. If in any year a Scholarship is not awarded, such Scholarship may be awarded as an additional Scholarship in any subsequent year.

Further Information

Ph: (08) 8313 5882

Email: graduate.research@adelaide.edu.au

Web: www.adelaide.edu.au/graduate-research