

The John Crampton Travelling Scholarship 2026

The late Mrs Mary Hope St. Clair Crampton died on 8 August 1996 leaving a bequest providing a number of scholarships to be used for the purpose of enabling students to undertake higher degree study overseas.

Applications are invited from students intending to undertake study in the areas of Architecture, Engineering, Fine Arts (Music excluded) or Classical Antiquity, in a country other than Australia. The number and value of scholarships awarded each year will be determined on merit and subject to available income.

The closing date for applications is 16 November 2025.

Eligibility: A candidate should preferably be an Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident and a graduate of an Australian university holding either a First Class Honours degree (or equivalent qualification) or a Research Masters degree. Other candidates who are students in any of the specified areas of study may be considered on merit.

Tenure: Normal tenure is up to two years for a Masters degree and three years for a Doctorate.

Value: The scholarship may comprise a living allowance, payment of most compulsory tuition fees and a travel allowance to assist the applicant in travelling to the study destination.

Applicants may be required to attend an interview at their own expense at the University of Adelaide after the closing date for applications.

Further information and application forms are available from The John Crampton Travelling Scholarship entry on The University of Adelaide Graduate Research Scholarships Database.
